

ENISA: The European Network and Information Security Agency

Rogier Holla

DG Information Society and Media

Unit A3 – Internet; Network and Information Security

European Network & Information Security Agency

- Seat: Heraklion, Greece
- Operational Sept. 2005
- Regulation March 2004 (460/2004, OJ L77/1 of 13.3.2004)
- Legal basis: art. 95 TEC

ENISA – objectives & tasks

Main objectives

- Assist the Commission and the Member States, and in consequence cooperate with the business community, in order to help them to meet the requirements of network and information security

Main tasks

- Advice & co-ordination, data collection & analysis
- Assistance in application EU measures
- International co-operation, awareness raising

• Centre of competence

ENISA – main bodies

- Management Board
 - 1 representative for every Member State
- Permanent Stakeholders Group
- Executive Director & staff
- Liaison Officers Group
- Ad Hoc Working Groups

ENISA – more information

- www.enisa.europa.eu
- rogier.holla@ec.europa.eu